

OPEN DAY HO CHI MINH

| Time | Agenda |
|-----------------|--|
| 5.30pm – 6pm | Registration |
| 6pm – 6.10pm | Welcome and why Australia should be your study destination – Australian Trade and Investment Commission (Austrade) |
| 6.10pm – 6.20pm | Overview of studying in Sydney and Macquarie University – Mr Simon Tran, International Country Manager, Global Engagement and Business Development, Macquarie International |
| 6.20pm – 6.35pm | Engineering, information technology and science programs at Macquarie University – Mr Feargal Caley, International Development Manager, Faculty of Science and Engineering |
| 6.35pm – 6.50pm | Media, music, communication and cultural studies at Macquarie University – Professor Julian Knowles, Associate Dean International, Faculty of Arts |
| 6.50pm – 7.05pm | The Macquarie University experience from our Vietnamese Alumni |
| 7.05pm – 7.20pm | An insight into human sciences and psychology programs at Macquarie University – Dr Ian Stephen, Senior Lecturer of Psychology and Deputy Associate Dean (International), Faculty of Human Sciences |
| 7.20pm – 7.35pm | Business, Finance and Actuarial Studies - Why Macquarie is the number one choice for many international business and economics students – Dr Hume Winzar, Associate Professor in Business, Faculty of Business and Economics |
| 7.35pm – 7.45pm | An insight on Scholarships, credit for previous studies and the application process – Mr Simon Tran, International Country Manager, Global Engagement and Business Development, Macquarie International |
| 7.45pm – 9pm | Speak with Macquarie faculty members, representatives, industry professionals and alumni about your degree and how to get the career you want. Consultation booths available: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Faculty of Arts• Faculty of Business and Economics• Faculty of Human Sciences• Faculty of Science and Engineering• Macquarie International Office/Alumni |